

Call For Papers
22nd Annual National Compost Conference
The Compost Council of Canada
September 19-21, 2012
Delta Centre-Ville, Montréal, Québec

The Compost Council of Canada is currently accepting submissions of papers for our 22nd National Compost Conference to be held in Montreal, Québec. Our Conference annually provides some of the most extensive opportunities for learning and networking available nationally for those engaged in organics recycling and compost marketing and utilization, providing a national forum. Participants include representatives from all levels of government (particularly with interests in Environment, Agriculture, and Economic Development), industry (organic waste generators, compost system manufacturers and designers, facility operators, consultants and others) and academia.

PAPERS ON THE FOLLOWING TOPICS ARE ENCOURAGED:

Organic Residuals Strategies for Communities, Agriculture, and Business

The Business of Organic Residuals

Compost Technology Developments

Anaerobic Digestion

Compost Marketing Strategies

Analytical and Applied Composting Research

Best Operational Practices
