Welcome ladybugs, bees, spiders, dragonflies and butterflies to your garden, directing aphids, slugs and snails to your compost bin.

Plant a variety of different vegetables in your garden for diversity. Pests tend to cause most problems when there is a lack of diversity in the garden.

What's bugging you? Resist the urge to kill every bug that appears in your garden! Most insects are, in fact, beneficial.

Plant • Grow • Share With Those in Need